DEATH OF HUGH TOMLINSON

The death of Hugh Tomlinson occurred at his late home in this village last Friday at about three a. m., after a short illness of pneumonia. The disease was of a most severe form from the first and medical skill seemed of no avail.

Funeral services were held at the church Sunday, Rev. E. J. Lord officiating. The services were largely attended, the floral offerings large and beautiful, coming from the men in the mill in which he worked, attesting to the high esteem in which the deceased was held. The remains were taken to Hyde Park for interment. The bearers were E. E. Camp, Sherman Quimby, Henry Bailey and Geo. Switzer. The deceased was born in Bolton, Vt. 28 years ago, the only child of J. B. Tomlinson of Stowe, his mother dying several years ago. Most of his life was spent in Bolton, moving here from Albany about four years ago, since that time he has been employed by the Stowe Lumber Co., most of the time. He was an honest and upright citizen of good habits and during his residence here had by his gental way made many friends by whom his death is most keenly felt. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the whole community.

Sale of Read Ratified

A session of United States court was held by Judge James L. Martin in this city, last Wednesday, for the purpose of hearing objections to the ratification of the sale of the Mount Mansfield Electric railroad to A. H. Sodon, of Boston, who purchased the road at auction for $22,500. No objections were interposed and Judge Martin ordered the entry made ratifying the sale. Before this sale is complete, however, several matters remain to be adjusted, among them the attorney fee of $2,000 of W. A. Sargent, of Boston, which is held up subject to the approval of the bond-holders. The receivership expenses are not heavy and will not exceed $3,000 in all. Receiver urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child Burt of Stowe, who has had charge of the reaches an age when it should be able to road since last February, only charged $300 for his services, and attorney L. This is what the Wilmington Times calls the policy of the Hyde Swamp Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle. Park Savings Bank's practice of investing all its funds in Vermont. It says: A novel scheme in banking is that of the Lamoille County Savinzs Bank and Trust Company of Hyde Park, Vermont, in devoting its entire assets to the fostering of Vermont enterprises and developing Vermont industries. That the scheme is safe as well as novel, is proved by the fact that in the 18 years since its organization the bank has never lost a dollar on a poor note, nor has it now, so far as is known, a single piece of poor or doubtful paper.

Commencing January 1908 that Bank will pay four per cent compounded semi-annually on all deposity large and small alike; will pay taxes on all sums up to $2000 and HERBS. will issue pass-books wirh no limits as to times of withdrawal or other restrictions or limitations save those common to all Vermo. t Savings Banks.
